Code of Practice on Complaints Handling

Highland Radio aims to deliver the best possible service to our listeners. We also aim to ensure that our programming is compliant with the requirements set out in the Broadcasting Act, 2009 and broadcasting codes published by Coimisiún na Meán (An Coimisiún), formerly the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland.

We welcome and will engage with all feedback, both negative and positive, from our listeners concerning any aspect of our service. We are obliged under the Broadcasting Act, 2009 and more recently the Online Safety and Media Regulation Act 2022 to have in place a Code of Practice for handling complaints from our listeners.

This Code of Practice sets out and explains our complaint process for listeners and ensures that we deal with complaints in an effective and efficient manner. Please note that the OSMR Act has expanded the range of matters which complaints can concern-

- Harm, offence, incitement and authority of State (section 46J)
- Privacy (section 46K)
- News & Current Affairs (section 46L)
- Advertising (section 46M(2) or (3), 106(3) and 127(6))
- Retention of copies of the programme material (section 46P(1) or (2))
- Media service codes and rules

1. What can I complain about?

You may submit a complaint to us if you are of the opinion that a broadcast or part of a broadcast on our service has breached one or more of the following obligations:

(i) News

We will ensure that our news programming is objective and impartial without any expression of our own views.

(ii) Current affairs

We will ensure that our current affairs programming is objective and impartial without any expression of our own views and will treat the subject matter and all interests concerned fairly. If we cannot achieve fairness, objectivity and impartiality in one current affairs programme, we will do so in related broadcasts that will be broadcast within a reasonable period of each other.

(iii) Programmes

We will ensure that our programming does not contain any content which may reasonably be regarded as causing harm or offence, tending to promote or incite crime, tending to undermine the authority of the State or unreasonably encroach upon the privacy of an individual.

We also will ensure programming is in compliance with the BAI Code of Programme Standards

(iv) Commercial Communications

All commercial communications broadcast by us will be in compliance with the BAI General Commercial Communications Code and the BAI Children's Commercial Communications Code.

(v) Right-of-Reply

Members of the public are entitled to request a right-of-reply under the Right-of-Reply Scheme where they believe something factually incorrect was broadcast which gave rise to their honour or reputation being impugned. Right-of-reply requests must be made to the broadcaster in the first instance.

The Right-of-Reply Scheme prepared by the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland (BAI) remains in force. References to the Compliance Committee of the BAI within the Scheme can be understood as references to the Commission.

The broadcasting codes can be accessed at <https://www.cnam.ie/broadcasting/> or available from the Coimisiún na Meán Offices.
